

Voting is a Right.

Know Yours.

In-Person Voting

1. You can check your registration and find your polling place by going to:
<https://vote.elections.virginia.gov/VoterInformation> or by calling your local registrar's office.
 2. You do not need a reason to vote early.
 3. Acceptable forms of ID include:
 - Virginia driver's license or DMV issued identification card
 - Voter ID card
 - Valid US passport
 - ID card issued by the federal, state, or local government
 - Employer-issued photo ID card
 - Student photo ID issued by a US university or community college
 - Student photo ID issued by a Virginia high school
 - Current utility bill, bank statement, or paycheck with your name and addressIf you do not have any of the above, you can sign an ID confirmation statement
 4. If your polling location closes while you are still in line, do not leave! As long as you were in line before closing time, you still have the right to vote!
 5. You have the right to a new ballot if you make a mistake, just ask an official.
 6. If you need help filling out your ballot, you may bring somebody to help you, but not your employer or a union representative. An election officer can help you and some polling places offer bilingual assistance.
 7. If somebody challenges your qualification to vote, know your rights:
 - Officials are allowed to ask you questions about your qualifications to vote:
 - If the challenge is regarding polling location, ask them to direct you to your correct polling location.
 - If you are sure that you are qualified, you can sign a sworn statement affirming your qualifications to vote. After doing this, the law requires that you are given the opportunity to vote using a regular ballot, not a provisional one.You can always cast a provisional ballot.
- Voter intimidation is against the law.
Anyone who threatens or harasses you in any way, which includes being "noisy or riotous" around the polling place or attempting to bribe or coerce you is committing a crime. Report them to the chief election officer or call 866-687-8683.
